Privacy of Research Subjects

Any intentional identification of a research subject (whether an individual or an organization) or unauthorized disclosure of his or her confidential information violates the promise of confidentiality given to the providers of the information. Disclosure of confidential information may also be punishable under federal law. Therefore, users of data agree:

- To use these datasets solely for research or statistical purposes and not for re-identification of specific research subjects.
- To make no use of the identity of any research subject discovered inadvertently and to report any such discovery to CBHSQ and SAMHDA (samhsa-support@samhsa.hhs.gov)

- If the confidentiality of human subjects has been violated, then report of the violation may be made to the Federal Office for Human Research Protections. This may result in an investigation of the user's institution, which can result in institution-wide sanctions including the suspension of all research grants.
- Court awarded payments of damages to any individual(s)/organization(s) harmed by the breach of confidential data.

Promise of confidentiality
A promise to a respondent or research participant that the information the respondent provides will not be disseminated in identifiable form without the permission of the respondent; that the fact that the respondent participated in the study will not be disclosed; and that disseminated information will include no linkages to the identity of the respondent. Such a promise encompasses traditional notions of both confidentiality and anonymity. In most cases, federal law protects the confidentiality of the respondent's identity as referenced in the Promise of Confidentiality. Under this condition, names and other identifying information regarding respondents would be confidential.

Research subject
A person or organization that participates in a research study. A research subject may also be called a respondent. A respondent is generally a survey respondent or informant, experimental or observational subject, focus group participant, or any other person providing information to a study.

The following updates have been made to the 2013 NSDUH Screening Application:

- The Military and Confirm Roster screens were updated throughout the screening application to remove the apostrophe following the phrase ‘United States’.

- The Informed Consent screen was updated to remove the word “payment” in the last sentence describing the $30 incentive.

- On the Confirm Roster screen, references to “Other” and “Unspecified” have been removed when listing a roster member’s race, ethnicity, and military status. These items will not be included on the Confirm Roster screen unless an appropriate response option is chosen for that roster member.

APPLICATION, PLEASE CONTACT YOUR FIELD SUPERVISOR OR THE

REMOVE COMPLETED CASES: This function will remove all cases that have been screened, and for which final interview codes have been entered for all selected respondents.

This function allows the FI to refresh his/her case list by removing all cases on ipaq that have been completed, have complete Access Data entered, and all final data successfully transmitted to RTI.  FI obtains FS approval before using this function.

REMOVE ALL CASES: USE WITH EXTREME CAUTION!!! This function will remove all cases, and their associated data from your handheld device.
This function should only be used as directed by your field supervisor and RTI.

This function prepares the iPAQ to receive the next quarter’s cases by removing all current final/transmitted cases from the iPAQ, then allowing the iPAQ to pick up the next quarter’s cases upon a subsequent transmission.  This function was moved to the CMS, but this feature to initiate the process was left on the iPAQ as a troubleshooting option.
